Shashthi Tithi

Maa Katyani

Om Katyani Daivya Namah

On Shashthi Tithi of Navratra there is tradition of worshipping Maa Katyani who bestow prosperity, spiritualism, prosperity and liberation. Devotee who worships Maa Katyani should first concentrate on Aagya Chakra then immerse in deep meditation. Aagya Chakra has a great importance in any prayer and meditation. The sixth manifestation of Maa Bhagwati is Maa Katayani.

Once there was a saint named Kat. He had one son called Rishi Kataya. Under same Kataya Gotra Maharishi Katayana was born. In consequence of his hard penance Maa Bhagwati Katyani was born as his daughter in his family.

On auspicious days Saptami, Ashtami and Navami Maa Bhagwati Katyani accepted the worship offered by saint Katayan and killed Devil Mahishasur. For same reason Maa is popularly called Katyani, the sixth manifestation of Maa Bhagwati. She is magnificent and enlightened, possesses four arms. One hand is in Var Mudra, Second hand is in Abhayae Mudra, Third hand holds lotus flower, Fourth hand holds sword, ascended on lion. One who worships Maa Bhagwati with devotion and reverence he gets blessed with prosperity, wealth, spiritualism etc.
